NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1863.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second years, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, 1862 is as follows:

Daily	50,125
Semi-Weekly	17,250
Weekly	148,000
Aggregate	215,375

Pre-eminently a journal of News and of Literature, THE TRIBUNE has political convictions which are well characterized by the single word REPUBLICAN. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men"—Republican in its assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its steadfast, earnest, defiant hostility to every scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the despots of the Old World, who fondly hail in the perils and calamities suddenly thrust upon us by their American counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican in its hope and trust, its faith and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its plotters, and the firm establishment of equal rights and equal laws throughout the whole extent of our country, wherein Liberty and Union shall indeed be "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

THE TRIBUNE devotes attention in calmer times, and to some extent in these, to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well-being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents, accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle which we trust to result in the signal and conclusive [illegible] that not otherwise can a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this momentous conflict be obtained than through the regular perusal of our columns. And we earnestly solicit the co-operation of all friends of the National cause, which we regard and uphold as that of Universal Humanity, to aid us in extending its circulation.

The enormous increase in the price of printing paper and other materials used in printing newspapers, compels us to increase the price of THE TRIBUNE. Our new terms are:

Address to the Voters of Beaver County.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—Again you are about to perform a freeman's highest duty. But war, not peace, now lights your path to the polls, and you come amidst alarms and dangers. A gigantic and causeless rebellion yet rear its wicked head, and demands all your patriotism and power to subdue it.

This is no time, when the blood of your sons, your brothers, and your kinsman, is poured out like water for your country's sake, to lend yourselves to party schemes. It is painful to think, that in the midst of a nation's sorrow, men are thinking of naught but partisan success, prolonging the war and increasing bloodshed, by paralizing the hands that administer the Government.

Surely this is not Democracy.—True Democrats are not found filling the ranks of such leaders; but like Butler, Dix, and Dickinson and Cass, and Grant, Logan, M'Clernand, Johnson, Hoit and Stanton, the great lights of the Democratic party; and the thousands of Loyal Democrats in the field, are found true to their country; supporting for its sake its measures and its administration. They see its peril, and as true patriots know no rational or practical means of safety except, through those who hold and administer its powers. Theirs is not the folly that would strike down the hands that hold the reins, and then bid the chariot of Government speed to ruin.

The war is unfinished and North or South must conquer. All your dearest interests are gathered on the battle-field, there to prevail or perish.—Your soldiers struggle with a formidable foe. They need all that Government can do or give, to secure the victory. Your Government cannot be too strong, too vigilant, too active, or too united.

The wily foe, grown desperate by defeats, seizes every advantage. He keeps up the spirit of resistance at home by painting the horrors and despotism of "Lincoln's Government," as he call it; and he animates their hope of ultimate success, by pointing to divisions in the North, and denunciations of "Lincoln and his minions." A Northern newspaper filled with attacks upon the draft, the taxes, and every measure caused by rebellion, and overflowing with gall and bitterness towards the Government, is a [illegible] to [illegible] endanger not only the cause of their country, but peril the soldier himself on the battle-field, by their acts.—They would break down his moral power by teaching that his cause is unjust. His blow is hardest, who believes his cause is right; yet they would unnerve his arm, by justifying secession, and declaring it could have been avoided by compromise.

But well they know that the interests of the South were ever protected by the Federal Government, for it has been their boast that the Government has always, with rare exceptions, been administered by Democratic hands; and for the last eight years down to the time of secession, it was thus administered under Pierce and Buchanan. They know that Congress, and the Executive, and the Supreme Court, filled by their friends, ever legislated, administered and decided for the South. They knew also that long before a resolution of compromise was offered, secession had taken place, that the forts, arsenals, ships, and property of the Government had been seized by armed traitors, and that the Senators and Representatives of the Cotton States left the Halls of Congress, declaring that no terms of compromise could or would be accepted.

Yet, knowing all these things, these Northern leaders would destroy the moral power of the soldier and the citizen by persuading them that their cause is unjust. For if this be not a just war in defence of the Union and the Constitution, against a wicked rebellion, every soldier's blow is unjustifiable; and he had volunteered to kill unlawfully. And you, fellow citizens, are accessory to the crime.—Have we not all given aid and support to this war? Have we not sent sons, brothers, kinsmen and friends to the battle field? Have we not contributed money and means? Is it true we are all guilty as manslayers, or their aiders and abettors? Yet these men would teach us our cause is unjust. How will a righteous God, and an impartial history equit us, if their words be true?

Not only do these men strike down the soldier and the citizen's moral power; but they strip the soldier of his strength, and the citizen of his defense by attacking his only source of power. Without a Government at his back, to supply his wants and to reinforce the soldier who weakened by death or disease, or outnumbered by the enemy, he must fall. Without a Congress to vote money, and supplies, and reinforcements, and an executive to carry out these laws and enforce them when opposed by faction and fraud, or disloyalty, the soldier must yield.

Yet do these leaders of party cry peace when there is no peace, and applaud those who, like Vallandigham, vote against supplies to the soldiers. They refuse to draft or reinforcement, oppose the arrest of deserters, and, in short, cripple and oppose the government in every form.

Who, then, is the soldiers' friend? Is it he who paralyzes his heart and his arm by these means? Who is the friend of the government? Is it he who weakens its strength and power of resistance, and encourages the enemy by division and opposition?

The soldier only knows the government through those who administer it. It is they who supply his wants and strengthen his arms. Yet these leaders harrass and vex and oppose and cripple them in every mode that ingenuity and disloyalty can devise, and then tell us this is not opposing the government; it is only opposition to the administration. But change the administration, and call it Democratic, and what difference does it make? The acts are the same. Their acts cripple and destroy the power of the government to suppress the rebellion, and in this is the wickedness of the thing. Government is practically known only through its administration. Is there an honest, loyal man so blind he cannot see that all these attempts to enfeeble and annoy the administration directly impair the power of the government to supply the wants of the army in men and munitions, and to carry on the war? Are we to see our kinsmen in the army succumb to the enemy for want of ability in the government to send reinforcements and supplies. Yet these men oppose the draft, the only means of reinforcing; and deny every power the government would assert for the benefit of those who are in the field.

Then, fellow citizens, come to your country's rescue. Let not the State of Pennsylvania pass into the hands of those whose arguments and whose doctrines directly impair the federal administration in its support of the soldier, and in its vigorous prosecution of the war, as the only means of a speedy end of rebellion and of saving both blood and treasure. You can do this only by supporting those who are earnest and ardent in that cause. Surely they can not be the faithful, true and sincere friends of the government, whose every act tends to weaken its power to prevail over the enemy.

We ask you to support no political party. Let parties lie back till the war is over and the Union secure.—We ask you not to be Republicans, or Democrats; but we do ask you to support the Government in its struggle for life. We ask you to vote for the good of your country, by voting for those who heartily support its cause.

The honest and true patriot must now discard all his feelings and private interests, all his likes and dislikes, all his prejudice and his leanings, and vote for the man who represents the true interests of his country. D. L. IMBRIE, Ch'n.

Brownlow's Knoxville Whig and Rebel Ventilator.

I propose to publish a weekly and tri-weekly journal, bearing the above title, at Knoxville, in East Tennessee; and the weekly paper, made up from the contents of the tri-weeklies, I propose to send out to distant subscribers, for Two Dollars per annum invariably paid in advance. Subscriptions and remittances will be forwarded to me at Cincinnati, from which point I expect to ship my papers and materials. I expect to issue the first number in October, as it was in that month two years ago, when my paper was crushed out by the God-forsaken mob at Knoxville; called the Confederate Authorities. I will commence with this hell born and hell-bound rebellion, were the traitors forced me to leave off, and all who with the paper would do well to begin with the first issue, as I intend that single paper shall be worth the subscription price to any Unconditional Union man!

In the rule of my editorial conduct, I shall abjure that severity which destroys the independence of the press; and cast from me that factious opposition which gives to party what is due to country. And whilst the name of my journal indicates, in unmistakable terms, its politics, I shall as a faithful sentinel, forget Whigs, Democrats, Know Nothings, and Republicans, and remember only my Government, and the preservation of the FEDERAL UNION—as richly worth all the sacrifices of blood and treasure their preservation may cost—even to the extermination of the present race of men and the consumption of all the means of the present age!

Publishers inserting the prospectus once, prominently, and sending me the paper to Cincinnati will be favored with an an exchange.

Sept. 7, '63. W. G. BROWNLOW

☞ A New York editor recommends the immediate recognition of the Southern Confederacy. He doesn't believe that this would "imply an acknowledgment of the right of secession." But it would imply an acknowledgment of the power to secede and to make the secession good, and this would be just as fatal as the acknowledgment of right so far as the preservation of the Union is concerned. Neither the right nor the power exists, and our Government would be both criminal and foolish to acknowledge the existence of either.

Plain Results of Voting.

By voting for Curtin a man shows a disposition to sustain the Government in its struggles for self-preservation.

By voting for Woodward, a man endorses rebellion and seeks to embarrass a government struggling to conquer a peace by the establishment of its own authority.

By voting for Curtin, a man shows his disposition to uphold the Constitution, and the Union now repudiated by the slave States.

By voting for Woodward, a man gives aid and comfort to the States in rebellion, as Woodward has publicly declared that the slave States possessed rights in defence of which they were justified in rebelling against the Government and destroying the Union.

By voting for Curtin, a man endorses the doctrine of free suffrage, and the right of the soldier to vote.

By voting for Woodward, a man accepts the decision made by him, that the defenders of a Government have no right to participate in its administration, and that the fact of service in the army or navy is the evidence of incompetency to exercise the right of the franchise and the proof positive that such citizens should be degraded to the level of a slave.

By voting for Curtin, a man prepares the way to a lasting peace by proving our determination to wage an eternal war rather than surrender the authority of the National Government over an inch of the National domain.

By voting for Woodward, a man encourages rebellion and thus forever impairs the security of all National liabilities, while he destroys every individual security which the free white men of the free States now possess.

By voting for Curtin, a man secures three years of further thrift and economy in the State Administration, by which millions of dollars were saved to the people of Pennsylvania within the last three years.

By voting for Woodward, a man seeks the inauguration of an administration that will oppose the National Government and place Pennsylvania in alliance with the confederate States, thus making the Keystone of the Federal Arch the means practically and eternally, to sever the States of the American Union.

over the border, pledged, if elected Governor of Ohio, to array it against Lincoln and the war, and go for peace."

Wherever is the difference between Vallandigham and Judge Woodward, they stand on the same platform, and have the same designs. Vallandigham is, however, out spoken, whilst Woodward sneaks among the knights of the "Golden Circle," and utters there his sympathies for the rebels.

☞ The platform of the Democracy is thus succinctly set forth in a communication to Harper's Weekly:

"First, Resolved, That we are in favor of the war."

"Second, Resolved, That we are opposed to all measures for carrying it on."

These resolutions are so comprehensive, and so truly indicative of the principles of the enemies of the Union, that they hereafter be used at Democratic meetings and conventions as a convenient substitute for the specimens of wretched grammer usually employed.

COLORED MEN IN THE NAVY.—It is estimated that there are now five thousand colored men in the navy.—Within the last eight or ten months they have been admitted as seamen, ordinary seamen and landsmen. Formerly they were chiefly occupied in the ward-rooms and in the after-guard. Not one of them, however, holds a position as petty officer in the service, although many of them are coxswains for boats. Admiral Paulding's barge at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, it is not generally known, has a crew of ten stalwart negroes.

GEN. LEE'S ESTATE.—A cotemporary states that some writers have erred in speaking of the Arlington estate, near Washington city, as having once belonged to General Washington. It was the property of the Custis family, and when Washington married the widow Custis he had charge of it in trust for her son, and afterwards for her grandson, the late G. W. P. Custis, to whom it reverted. Mr. C. married a daughter of Wm. Fitzhugh, of Chatham, who had married a Miss. Randolph, and they left one child a daughter, who married Robert E. Lee, now at the head of the Confederate army in Virginia.

DEATH OF GENERAL HOUSTON.—General Sam Houston died at his residence in Huntersville, Texas, on the 25th of July. He was seventy years of age.

The above is the brief notice of the Richmond Whig, of the death of this distinguished man. Its brevity is sufficient assurance that he died a loyal man.

A Battle Cry---Wages for Labor.

We suggest, says Wilkes' Spirit, to the working Democracy of the North, without their office looking leaders are endeavoring to dragoon into the service of the Southern aristocracy, a battle cry for the next campaign.—Let the text of the campaign be, "Wages for Labor;" and let them bear in mind, that the instant this principal is fully recognized, a vast region will be opened to them which has hitherto been usurped by the negro and his lordly master. We want the Southern country opened up to white labor, and the only way to accomplish that is to secure wages to all labor. The lordly idlers who live upon the work of other men, will then gladly employ the labor which is most profitable and the best. As for the negroes, they will go largely into the standing army of the country; and as it is a well known fact that soldiers do not reproduce themselves, a large portion of the problem of their future will be clearly solved. Let the true Democracy, therefore, rally to the cry of "Wages for labor!" It is the only one which is worthy of their name and principles; it will do more, by its very sound, to defeat the Northern miscreants who are endeavoring to mislead them to the support of Southern aristocracy and treason, than all other arguments combined.—The opposition to the text will come solely from aristocrats and traitors—therefore it will prove the best touchstone for the separation of the Democratic masses from their infamous leaders, that could be applied. "Wages for labor."

THE DISAPPEARANCE OF SLAVERY AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—The Unconditional Union Committee of Maryland advise the people of that State, in their address, to abolish the institution of slavery at the earliest possible period. "The substance of slavery," they say, "is gone, and they are of the opinion that the sooner the skeleton is removed the better it will be for the true interests of the State and of the Union." In Delaware the disappearance of the slave population has been almost as rapid as in Maryland, and the people seem to manage to get along very comfortably without them. In Tennessee the military operations have almost completely destroyed this species of property; something similar has taken place in [illegible] not [illegible] permitted to remain.

HARD ON NEWSPAPER MEN.—Gen. Meade has issued the following order.

I. Newspaper correspondents will be admonished to hold no communication with prisoners of war, whether on their way to headquarters or temporarily detained in the custody of any guard; or to seek any information from guides, scouts or refugees coming from beyond the lines.

II. No newspaper correspondent or civilian, not connected with the army, will be permitted to accompany or remain with cavalry serving in the front or on the flank of the army.

GEN. GRANT ON COPPERHEADS.—A significant remark was made a few days since by Gen. Grant to some Chicago friends. They were conversing upon Gen. Logan and and his extension of furlough. General Grant remarked that he extended Gen. Logan's furlough because, while he was in Illinois fighting Copperheads, he still was in the field doing duty.

☞ In a speech, delivered in Nashville, at a meeting called to rejoice over the National successes before Charleston, Gov. Johnson declared himself a thorough-going Emancipationist, and urged the immediate and thorough abolition of Slavery in Tennessee and elsewhere.

☞ A Danish writer speaks of a hut so miserable that it didn't know which way to fall, and so kept standing. This is like the man that had such a complication of diseases that he did not know what to die of, and so lived on.

☞ The New York World says that nature has endowed President Lincoln with a "single great quality"—that he has nothing but a "certain vulgar honesty." According to the etiquette of copperheadism, honesty is the vulgarest thing in the world.

☞ Mrs. Jameson says — "The bread of life is love, the salt of life is work; the sugar of life, poetry; the water of life faith." Hand us the bread and sugar; never mind the salt.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer says that the Federal soldiers are "like swine." Then let the rebel government read its doom. Wherever the hog comes the rattlesnake disappears. —Prentice.

☞ It is suggested that all the thieves in the country ought to wear crape thirty days for the death of John B. Floyd.—Prentice.

DONE WELL.—The Maine Wesleyan Seminary has sent 400 of its students to the war. One hundred and fifteen went during one term.

Are You Assessed?

Be member, voters, that next Saturday, the 3d Oct., is the last day of Assessment. If your name is not on the roll you may lose your vote.—See to it at once. We ask our friends in the several districts to look to this matter, and see that every loyal voter is assessed. Soldiers at home on furlough have a right to vote, and must be assessed.

Loyal Voters of Beaver County!

See that you are assessed. You ought to attend to this at once. Look at the Assessor's list; if your name is not there, or the name of any loyal man in your township is not on the list, see that it is placed there. Remember that it must be done at least ten days before the 2d Tuesday of October. See that every soldier is assessed, whether at home or in the field—Every effort is made by the enemies of the country stating that soldiers, although they may be at home, have no right to vote. This is utterly untrue. Then let no one be deceived by their falsehoods. We must lose no votes by negligence or carelessness, or by fraud or the bullying of our enemies and the enemies of our country.

☞ We have been frequently asked why Judge Cunningham did not speak at the Mass Convention. We answer, that he intended doing so, but there were so many strangers here that out of courtesy he gave way for them. The Judge is doing good work for the cause of the Union in the State. The people of Beaver county, though anxious to hear him, will willingly forego the pleasure in consideration of his labors elsewhere.

Questions for the Star.

Are you in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war for the suppression of the rebellion?

Are you in favor of furnishing the President with funds sufficient to arm, equip, pay, clothe and subsist our armies & navies engaged in its suppression?

Are you in favor of the amendment to the constitution of Pennsylvania giving soldiers the right of suffrage?

We would be glad to have answers to these questions that we may understand the present position of our cotemporary.

☞ Hon. Thomas Cunningham left Beaver on Friday evening last, accompanying the Governor, by invitation, to Washington county, to attend the Mass Convention held in that county, on the 26th. Judge Cunningham will also accompany the Governor to other parts of the State, having accepted an invitation from the State committee to speak at different places during the canvass. To the many who are anxious to know where he stands in this contest, we say he is as he always has been, for his country, and believing the election of Curtin and Agnew necessary for the salvation of the country, he will use all his influence to secure their election.

The Second Tuesday of October.

The loyal Union men of Beaver county must be vigilant. They must work from this till the Second Tuesday of October. They must look well to their cause. We have an insidious and treacherous foe who are unTiring and unscrupulous in their efforts to carry out their treasonable designs at the ballot box. Let every lover of our country—every one who desires to see it rescued from armed treason and the attacks of cowardly foes at home, be prepared for every assault of malignant copperheads.

The man who is continually complaining of the Administration and the Government that gives him all that he has worth enjoying—life, liberty and property, is a traitor and an enemy to his country and humanity, and should be scorned, despised and shunned by every patriotic soul in the land. Loyal men of Beaver county, remember that the most decisive battle of the war is to be fought on the Second Tuesday of October—one that will prove more potent than the bloodiest victories.

If we fail in electing the Union candidate in Pennsylvania, there will not be a traitor in arms that will not take courage and nerve himself for the overthrow of this great Government, and for renewed struggles against our noble soldiers in the field. And should Woodward and Lowrie be elected they would give even aid in their power to the Jeff. Davis Government.

Then, freemen of Beaver county, look to your homes. Be no longer blind to the danger that threatens you, and which nothing but your energy can avert.

Think of the issue in this important canvass. In Richmond, baffled traitors with hands reeking in the blood of Gettysburg, and fresh from the murder of those you love are looking with anxious expectation to you and to the disloyal men in your midst.—The bloodiest of victories is nothing to be compared with our success in October. George W. Woodward is a captain of the Confederate cause more mighty than any that wears the rebel uniform and sword. Then you must work to defeat this man if you love your country. And now we ask how can a loyal man allow his name to be used as a candidate on a ticket headed by George W. Woodward.—Woodward is in favor of Secession and Rebellion. Can a loyal man support him or consent to be a candidate on the same ticket?

LECTURE and CONCERT.

Prof. S. J. Wilson, of the Western Theological Seminary will deliver a Lecture. Vocal and Instrumental music will be given in connection with the Lecture. Admission 25 cents; children 10 cents. Exercises commence at 7½ o'clock.

Democratic Meeting.—The Mass Meeting of Thursday, the 24th, was, all things considered, quite a success. A large crowd, was in attendance, variously estimated at from two to three thousands persons, fully three fourths of them being voters.—Star.

Who was it that estimated it? By actual count there were not over 900—one fourth Republicans, one third women and children, the balance copperheads.

New Store.—In visiting Rochester lately we stopped in at the new store recently opened by Mr. F. A. Fortune, and took pleasure in examining his stock, and we can safely say a more complete stock of Dry Goods, Millinery and Shoes, has never been opened in the county. In prices, one would think the war had lately come to a close, and we were at peace once more. His goods, arranged in their different departments, enables the purchaser, at first, to choose from a large and well selected stock. The back room has been fitted up exclusively for bonnets, hats and hoop skirts, of which a large assortment is always on hand. Mr. F's line of dress goods is complete, and range in prices to be within the reach of all. His domestic goods having been purchased before the late advance, he will still continue to sell them at prices not to be had elsewhere. The store inside has lately been fitted up with much care, and can only be seen to be appreciated. From the amount of goods Mr. F has lately purchased, and the steady run at his store, we are satisfied in saying Fortune is able to sell goods as low, if not lower than they can be had in any of the cities. Mr. F. is always behind his own counter, ready to receive and try to please any of the ladies who may favor him with a call. See advertisement in our columns.

Notice to Co. F, 14th Regt. P. V. M.—The pay rolls have been received and will be made out at once. When made out they will be forwarded to Harrisburg for approval, and when approved a paymaster will be sent on to pay off the men. Before payment every member of the company having a musket received here, must return the same to Capt. G. W. Hamilton, Beaver.

Immense Meeting of Loyal Men!

OLD BEAVER AROUSED!

12,000 PEOPLE IN COUNCIL!

The Greatest Meeting Ever held in Beaver County, and the Greatest in the State Outside of the Cities.

Friday, the 26th inst., was a great and proud day for loyal Beaver county. Notwithstanding the heavy rains of the evening before and the lowering clouds and cold, damp air, the loyal masses came out in their strength. The people came pouring into the town early in the morning and the stream of arrivals, carriages, buggies, wagons, on horseback and on foot, continued uninterrupted until one, P. M. About eleven oclock, A. M., a special train arrived from Pittsburg, with Gov. Curtin, Col. Thos. McDowell, former editor of the Harrisburg Patriot and Union, Thos. M. Marshall, Esq., Senator Graham, Mayor Sawyer, ex Mayor Weaver, Capt Batchelor and a delegation of two or three hundred from Pittsburg, accompanyed by a splendid brass band The delegation was met at Rocester by Gen. W. W. Irwin and a Committee from Beaver, consisting of D. L. Imbrie, B. B. Chamberlin, Dr. A. T. Shallenberger, Wm. Henry, J. S. Rutan and W W. Kerr. An immense throng had congregated at the Station, and when the Governor arrived he was warmly greeted. Hundreds pressed up to shake hands with him his presence creating the most unbounded enthusiasm. Delegations from several townships had arrived and joined the escort. First, the committee, the Governor, and his suite, with other distinguished visitors, led the procession. Then followed the New Sewickly delegation, with twenty five wagons, tastefully decorated, with flags unfurled, preceded by a fine drum band that played excellently. This delegation attracted a good deal of attention, coming as it does from the Gibraltar of Democracy in this county. Every one wondered how they had secured so large a representation. The fact is, New Sewickly is fast becoming all right.—The activity of the leaders of the Union party in that township promises well for the future. After New Sewickly came Freedom borough and district. It really seemed of as if Freedom was out en massee. They had about two hundred in procession They carried a banner on which was inscribed "Freedom good for three to [illegible] to Ope for Freedom and the Government. Moon township with a delegation of twenty six wagons; Economy with a large delegation, and enthusiastic as ever, followed. We have not space to notice each as we would desire or as they deserve. The Pittsburg delegation followed with their splendid band of music. The whole procession coming from that section alone was a mile and a half in length. It was indeed a fitting escort for our noble Governor. Arriving in Beaver they met the delegations from other parts of the county. Raccoon with its sixty wagons and buggies and four hundred citizens; Ohio with over two hundred; Industry with seventy voters alone in procession; Darlington with over three hundred; New Brighton over five hundred. Time and space fails us to enumerate others. In short every district was here in force. The procession halted at the National Hotel and were dismissed for dinner. While there, hundreds called upon the Governor and all were delighted with his manner and treatment of them.

At one, P. M., the procession was formed to proceed to the Fair Grounds. Gen. W. B. Clarke acted as Grand Marshal by appointment, and deserves great praise for the manner in which he discharged his duties. Jos. Wilson, Capt. Speyerer, John Stiles, Geo. W. Welsh, Capt. Weaver and Samuel Magaw, Esq., were his assistants. The Governor and Judge Agnew rode out together in Gen. Irwin's carriage.—Hon. W. W Ketcham and Hon. G. V. Lawrence who arrived the evening before with the others named before followed in carriages. The delegations walked out in procession and those competing for the flag were counted by the committee:—M. Weyand, A. G. M'creary, G. C. Bradshaw, M. Darragh, B. R. Bradshaw, S. M'Ferran and S. J. Cross, as they passed in the gate. Arriving in the Fair Grounds the following officers were elected, on motion of Chairman of the Co. Com.

President: Thomas Nicholson, Esq

Vice Pres'ts: A R Miller, Esq., David Reed, Esq., Robert Duncan, Wm C Fisher James Smith, Esq., Samuel Nelson, Jacob Shaffer, G C Speyerer, A P Lacock, T J Kerr, James Moore, L J Berry, H Goehring, J W. Boots, H J Mets, David Warnock, E Smith, Benj Wilds, Major R Darragh, Dr J. Murray, D Johnston, Jas Patterson, Jos Brittain, Rev J C Chapman, James P Martin, Samuel G Caughey, Capt D Dawson, Benj Todd, Esq, Richie Eakin.

Secretaries: Chas N Merrick, Jas Trimble, Edwin Reader, Rev Dr Storer, Dr P M Kerr, W P M'Connell, H J Marshall, J I Reed, Dr T G Boyd, Wm M Reed, G W Shrodes, R A Cochran, Henry Bimber, Dr Marquis.

The President thanked the meeting for the honor conferred, and remarked that as a mark of gratitude he would not inflict a speech upon them.

He then introduced Gov. Curtin amid tremendous applause. So great was the anxiety to hear the Governor that it was thought best not to divide the audience until he closed his speech. Seldom, we think, has any man addresses so large an audience. Mayor Sawyer made an estimate of the number present at the stand, during the time the Governor was speaking, by counting the number, composing the diameter and multiplying by the average in the circumference, and his estimate was ten thousand. We think the estimate about right. Did we speak in exaggerated language of the Star we would say thirty thousand, at least. The number, in our case, was, happily, large enough without exaggeration.

The Governor made a most happy effort, calm and dignified in his argument and conclusions, eloquent, patriotic and powerful in his appeals in behalf of the Government, he captivated and held his audience spell bound. He is one of the best orators of the land, having the command of language and grace of delivery that never fails to please. We can give no account of his speech that would do him justice. An old life-long Democrat, who heard him, who has enjoyed the confidence of the party and never yet faltered in his support of it, remarked that he felt every word the Governor said true in his heart. So the people felt that every word uttered by him was true. Their hearts told them so, and in their heart they thanked God for such a leader.

The Governor was enthusiastically cheered during the delivery of his speech, and when he closed the enthusiasm of the people knew no bounds. Col. Thomas M'Dowell, late editor of the Star's political Bible, the Harrisburg Patriot & Union, who was so much lauded by that paper a short time since, was introduced and spoke for an hour to a delighted audience. The Colonel made a telling speech, and we which he represented it.

He was followed by H. C. Muckerell and Thomas M. Marshall, Esqs., of Pittsburgh, and George V. Lawrence, of Washington county. Each of the gentlemen named made excellent speeches, and were loudly applauded.

A second stand was opened at the conclusion of the Governor's speech. Ritchey Eakin was called to preside W. W Ketcham, of Luzerne county, was introduced and made one of the best speeches we ever heard. Mr. Ketcham is a close reasoner and a pleasing speaker. He is, in fact, one of the ablest men in Pennsylvania.—Those who listened to him were delighted, and considered it a rare treat. Senator Ketcham has a future that the State will yet be proud of.

A third stand was erected to accommodate the people, at which M. Weyand, Esq., Chairman of the Flag Committee, announced the result, giving the flag to Raccoon township. Mr. Weyand presented the Flag in a most well-timed speech. His remarks were appropriate, and, in some parts, eloquent. Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., received the flag on behalf of the Township, in a speech at once witty, beautiful and eloquent. Marshall never fails to do justice to any occasion. Raccoon township fairly earned the Flag, although Ohio, New Sewickly, Industry, Darlington, Moon, Freedom, Economy and New Brighton were but little behind.

We cannot close this notice without referring to the New Brighton delegation, and especially the neatness, taste and appropriateness of the first wagon. We refer to the one bearing the thirty-five little girls dressed in white, representing the States. The wagon was also nicely decorated, having on the side inscribed, "Curtin, the Friend of our Soldier Brothers" It was the admiration of all. The girls well deserve the compliments bestowed upon them, and New Brighton ought to feel justly proud of their display. The people of New Brighton all acted on the democratic principle, old and young walking in the procession, commanded by Capts. Boyle and Cuthbertson. New Brighton did nobly. Darlington also deserves special notice. They too, had thirty-five little girls in a wagon, drawn by four magnificent bays, and nicely decorated. Taking all things into consideration, Darlington was second, in its display, to none in the county.

The meeting adjourned about five o'clock, p m, and the people dispersed, pleased beyond measure, and determined to contribute with their might to the election of Curtin and Agnew.

There was a meeting held in Rochester in the evening, at which Senators Lawrence, Francis, Thomas M. Marshall and others spoke.

The Great Copperhead Fizzle.

On last Thursday, according to the Star, and numberless large posters, we were to have a tremendous outpouring of the people to listen to the great lights of the Copperhead party. There was to be a great time generally. The whole country was to be aroused and to come forth in the majesty of its might, and by the "mute eloquence of numbers" administer a withering rebuke to "Lincoln's minions."

Well, Thursday came, but the numbers, we are compelled to record the fact, did not come.

THE PROCESSION

consisted of forty wagons, exactly; or to be more explicit forty vehicles, of which several were one horse buggies—in fact the procession was emphatically "a one horse" affair.—There were no mottoes, no enthusiasm, no banners, no devices, but a sorry effigy of the departed spirit of '44 in the shape of a stuffed rooster on top of a stuffed coon—not anything worth noticing. The driving of a few sickly looking wagons, filled with a dreary set of down-cast Copperheads, was all that we had in the way of a procession. It was the dismalest procession we ever witnessed, the seediest, sorriest attempt to get up anything of the kind perhaps that ever took place Many of the oldest copperheads were made sick by the sight.

THE MEETING

as a matter of course, was a slim affair. We are anxious not to underestimate the number present, but we must say in all candor that there were not at any time over nine hundred persons in attendance. This was evidently a great disappointment to the faithful, and those who had come out to see ten or twenty thousand at the Fair Grounds were most terribly disappointed The chagrin of the leaders may be imagined, but it can not be described. Quite a number felt so dispirited that they had recourse to the aid of stimulating beverages in order to keep their spirits up. Indeed towards the latter part of the which we are sure they would not have done had it been possible to have kept up the enthusiasm in any other manner.

THE SPEAKING

was like all the rest—a failure. The first gentleman was

of New Castle, by far the most talented member of the party in this Congressional District; but his speech was, somehow or other, from the influence of the scene, the smallness of the crowd—rather a failure. We heard many copperheads themselves declare that Taylor never made a worse attempt.

After Mr. Lewis had finished his speech a long, lank lean, lantern jawed individual was put up for a song.—The song, like the singer, was by no means a specimen of

"Linked sweetness long drawn out,"

But a harsh unmusical jargon quite in keeping with the rest of the performance. The singing being ended,

MR. S. B WILSON

Appeared before the unterrified, and began very fiercely to denounce the War, the Administration and all connected therewith. He was, however, remarkably mild upon "Jeff." The cause of this is very apparent. Sam hates old Abe. He loves Jeff. He despises the Cabinet at Washington. He admires that at Richmond. Sam B. is a specimen of the Simon pure copperhead—as full of venom and bitterness as his friends Beauregard, Lee and Bragg could wish. After tearing the Union to pieces S. B. gave way to one

R. H. KERR,

A Legislative borer who, small in mental caliber, stood low in stature and low in language, was a fitting conclusion to this most miserable fizzle.

Fresh Oysters.

Peter Angel, of Bridgewater, calls the attention of his friends and customers—and those who desire a nice dish of Oysters, to the fact that he is receiving, daily Maltby's Oysters, the best Oysters known. He will also sell by the can or half can.

☞ There will be a meeting of the County Committee at the Court House, on Saturday, Oct 3d, at 1 p m. All the members are earnestly requested to be present.

Great Union Meeting at Frankfort Springs, on the 22d.

This meeting was, in all respects, a complete success, far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of the committees engaged. They were well aware that love of country and its great and glorious institutions animated the great masses in this region. Still such an outpouring of the people was not expected. All candid persons admit it was the largest meeting ever held in a country district in Western Pennsylvania.

The arrangements of the various committees, the performance of the Marshals, the extraordinary good conduct of the vast crowd, all attracted attention and elicited approbation.—After marching and countermarching through the village, which occupied a long time, the meeting was organized by the selection of the following officers:

President: Gen. James Lee,

Vice Presidents: Jonathan Allison, J H Pugh, Alex Morrow, J B Smith, Geo M'Porter, J C Crawford, James Gardner Sr, Geo Orr, Capt Rosin Morton, Geo M'Wha, Josiah Grey, J W Stewart, Joseph Harper Sr, Wm Irwin, M M Brockman, Edward M'Donald, Jno Craig, Jas Smith, Jno Crisler, Jas McNary, Sam'l Saxon, Thos Ramsey, Mathew Bailey, David Gault, Joseph Vance, David S Walker, Geo W Teenan.

Secretaries: D Donehoo, D S Nicholson, S Davenport, A H Burns, Jno Farrar, Jos M'Claren, J H Trimble.

Rev. J. Pomroy opened the exercises with an earnest and appropriate prayer.

The people at stand No. 1 were then addressed by A. W. Acheson, Esq., of Washington, Pa. This was one of his most able efforts, showing by the record that the rebellion was without cause, also sustaining and defending by argument and logic unanswerable, the course of the administration in all it has done, so far. If that speech fails to convince any honest mind at present under the delusions of such demagogues as Hopkins, I would despair of him, though Jackson rose from the dead. Mr. Acheson was followed by Mr. Howard of Allegheny Co., a gentleman of great ability. He spoke at considerable length and with much force and eloquence. It would be hard to decide which was the greatest effort; certainly two such able, eloquent and logical speeches have seldom been heard from the same stand on the same day. But it must needs be so When men of such moral worth, intelligence and patriotism plead for their bleeding, suffering country they will be—they must be eloquent.

At stand No. 2 a vast crowd was addressed by Mr. Moreland of Allegheny co. Mr. M. is a young member of the Pittsburg bar, a fine scholar, a beautiful speaker, and able debater, full of fine wit and anecdote. No other proof of his ability need be stated than the fact, that for full two hours the attention of the vast throng around the stand was held spell bound by him though frequently convulsed by some of his witty sallies.

The ladies of Frankfort had prepared a beautiful banner to be given to the Florence people. The banner was presented to a crowd of little Misses of the Florence delegation by Mr Howard. On the part of the little folks, Mr. Mcreland replied. This was quite an interesting part of the proceedings. The meeting quietly and orderly dispersed about 4 o'clock.

A night meeting was held in front of Mrs. Vances' which was addressed by Messrs. Moreland and Howard.

Mr. Editor, this was one of the pleasant days of my life. True, in the present unhappy condition of my country there is cause of sorrow, but here is evidence that the popular heart is still true as the needle to the pole.

Demagogues are doing much to deceive the people and destroy the government by prolonging the war and aiding the rebellion. But they cannot succeed in their wicked designs. When this cruel war is over, the old flag floating over all our territory, not a star missing, our brave defenders returned, then these wretches will cry in vain for rocks and hills to hide them from the scorn of patriots.

JOHN CUTHBERTSON,
Captain & Provost Marshal,
24th District Penn'a.
By order of Col. Fry,
Provost Marshal General.

Camp of 140th Regt. P. V., Sept. '63.

Mr. Editor—Will you insert the following and oblige a friend of the deceased?

Died, at Jarvis General Hospital, Baltimore Md., Aug. 10th, 1863, Wm. [illegible] Co. H, 140th Penn'a Vols. The sad truth is forced upon us that another spirit has taken its flight to the immortal world, and caused us to look with sorrow at the vacant place once occupied by him.—His smiling face is not there to cheer us on the weary march or by the cheerful blaze of the camp fire, where oft before we have enjoyed his pleasant companionship. Our mess has indeed lost a treasure and each one of us a friend. When he left us to go to the Hospital his illness was not of so serious a nature as to create the suspicion of danger to his life, and we looked forward with pleasure to the time when he should return to us in the enjoyment of health. But his manly form is laid low, and his voice is hushed in death. He fell, not amid the bursting shell or crashing musket of his brother comrades—but yet a victim on his country's altar he died. No friend was near to cool the fever-ish brow, or watch the fleeting breath. As he died but not unmourned.—The sad intelligence fell upon our hearts with crushing power and a gloom was cast over us which could not be dispelled. His history and the many manly traits of character which he possessed, had made him dear to us as a brother. His early fate was fraught with sadness by the grief of his mother. When her gentle guardianship had ceased, he went forth alone into the world, and by an honorable life gained the esteem of his acquaintances. At his country's call he marched forth manfully and yielded up his life in her defence. We shall see him no more. He has gone to the "silent city" and left us in sorrow and sadness. His sleep knows not of mortal waking. But yet his name should live, and his example be recorded on the tablets of our hearts for ever. "MESSMATE."

Notice is Hereby Given,

That every person except Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or agent, who is or shall have been employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary department of this State or the United States, or of any city or incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any city, or commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Inspector, Judge, or Clerk of any election of the Commonwealth, and that no Judge, Inspector, or any other officer of such election, shall be eligible to any to be then voted for.

Also, in and by the fourth section of an Act approved the 19th of April, 1840, it is enacted that the 13th section of the act passed July 2d, 1839, entitled an act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth, shall not be construed so as to prevent any military officer or borough officer from service as Judge, Inspector or Clerk at any general or special election in this Commonwealth.

And the said act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2d, 1839, provides as follows:

That the Judge and Inspectors chosen as aforesaid, shall meet at their respective places appointed for holding the election in the districts to which they respectively belong, before 9 o'clock on the morning of the Second Tuesday of October in each and every year, and each of said Inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of said district.

In case the persons who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend on the day of an election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as Inspector in his place; and in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the present elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected Judge shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the Board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward, or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of Assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judges when called on, in relation to the rights of any persons assessed by them to vote at such elections, or such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters as the said inspectors or judge, or either of them shall inform me to time require.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County Tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months: Provided, that the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, and having resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote although they have not paid taxes.

☞ No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners, unless, first, he produce a receipt for the payment within two years, of a State or county tax, assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and gives satisfactory evidence either on his own oath or affirmation or of another, that he has paid such tax, or on failing to procure a receipt, shall make oath of the payment thereof; or second, if he claims a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of the residence in the district as is required in this act; and that he does verily believe, from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and gives such other evidence as is required by this act; whereupon the names of the persons so admitted to vote shall be inserted into the alphabetical list by the Inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid a tax, or the word "age," if he shall be admitted on account of his age, and in either case, the reasons of such votes shall be called out by the clerks, who shall make the like notes in the list of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners and Assessor, or his right to vote, whether found there or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of Inspector to examine such persons on oath as to qualification, and, if he claims to have resided within the State one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election, and shall also himself swear his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district for the purpose of voting therein.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly, or overpower any elector, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of his choice; such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any time not less than twelve months; and if it shall be shown that by the Court who the trial of such offence shall be had that the person offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the said offences was committed and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by written or printed advertisement, challenge or invite any person or persons to make such a bet or wager, upon conviction thereof, he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

If any person not by law qualified shall fraudulently vote at any election within this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified, shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualification, shall aid or procure such persons to vote, the person or persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three months.

If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fradulently fold and deliver to the inspectors two tickets together, with the intention to vote illegally, or shall vote the same, or if any person shall advise or procure another to do so, he or they so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeably to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens,) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of issuing tickets, or of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

The Return Judges of the several districts aforesaid are requested to meet at the Court House, in Beaver, on the first Friday after the second Tuesday of October, next, at ten o'clock, a. m., to perform those things required by law.

And by "An Act relating to the Elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d day of July, 1839, it is provided and directed as follows:

SEC. 81. When two or more counties shall compose a district for the choice of a member or members of the Senate of this Commonwealth, or of the House of representatives of the United States, or of this Commonwealth, the Judges of the election in each county, having met as aforesaid, the Clerks shall make out a fair statement of all to votes which shall have been given at such election, within the county, for every person voted for, as such member or members, which shall be signed by said Judges and attested by the Clerks, and one of the said Judges shall take charge of such certificate, and shall produce the same at a meeting of one Judge from each county, at such places in such district, as is or may be appointed by law for the purpose; which meeting shall be held on the seventh day after the election.

SEC. 82. The Judges of the several counties have met, as aforesaid shall cast up the several county returns and made duplicate returns of all the votes given for such office in said district, and of the names of the person or persons elected, and one of said returns, for each office, shall be deposited in the office of the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which they shall meet, and the other shall by said Judges be deposited in nearest post office, sealed and directed as in parts two and three of the eighteenth section of this act.

SEC. 83. It shall also be the duty of the Return Judges in every case, to transmit to each of the persons elected to serve in congress, or in the House of Representatives of this Commonwealth, a certificate of his election, within five days after the day of making up such return.

The Return Judges of the Representative District composed of the counties of Beaver and Lawrence will meet at the Court House in Beaver, according to the provisions above cited.

Given under my hand at Beaver, this 1st day of September, 1863, and of the Independence of the United States the Eighty-eighth.

The Eye.

DR. J. R. SPEER, 196 Penn st., Pittsburg, continues to devote special attention, as he has done for the last twenty-five years, to the diseases, deformities and defects of this important organ.

In reply to frequent inquiries of correspondents, it may be stated that, amongst the CURABLE diseases of the eye are Cataract, where the pupil is of a milky color, instead of black, as in the healthy eye; Opthalmia, Pterygium, Opacities and Films from recent inflammation, Nervous Sensibility of the Optic Nerves, Strabismus, or Crooked Eyes, Inversion of the Eye-lids, Fistula, Lachrymalis.

Amongst the incurable are Amaurosis, or complete paralysis of the optic nerve, where no light is visible; Opacities and Films from chronic inflammation; all cases in which the ball of the eye is lessened or altered in form by disease of injuries.

Defects of Vision, as along or short sightedness, may generally be relieved or cured by properly adjusted glasses.

This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER,

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths But, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with those Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH!

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and concenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

NOW.

USE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS NOW.

The best evidences that they are the best, the firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd, an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, says these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading dentist of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best in the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says: We are happy to know that our friend Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. For Earache and Nervous Headache simply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. We have them. They are entirely a novel, and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent, and appreciate preparations that contribute to the happiness of those using them, and they want them. Every mail brings in letters from ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some for Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing stamps for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail. To these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. What do they supply them?

Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune by carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Sell one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. ☞ Now is the time to go into the business, to do good, and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men! New Yorkmen! here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address,

WM. B. HURD & CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.

That remittances may be made with confidence, W. B. H. & Co., refer to the Mayor of Brooklyn; to G. W. Griffith, President Bank of Commerce and Citizens Bank, Brooklyn; to Jay Cooke, New York; to P. T. Barnum, Bowery, New York, etc.
